Convention Guarantee Assured at Meeting of Representative Business Men.

MAIL INSTRUCTIONS.

Active Campaign to Be Inaugurated to Secure the $10,000 Pledged for the Democratic Gathering.

140,000 guarantee for the National Democratic Convention were taken yesterday at a meeting of the Finance and Arrangement Committee at the Mercantile Club by the appointment of various subcomnittees, which will solicit funds.

More than 160 representative business men attended the meeting. The personnel of the subcommittees is very broad and nearly every line of trade in St. Louis was placed under the jurisdiction of a special committee consisting of men engaged in Democrats and Republicans were alike enthusiastic that the civic pride of St. Louis should be maintained and that the full measure of the obligation of the Business Men's League for raising $40,000 to meet expenses of the convention should be discharged. "The spirit of the meeting was such."

said John Schroers, who presided, "that I am confident that the amount pledged will be readily raised, and I would not be surprized if it was exceeded by several thou-At the close of the meeting several busi-

Pepsin Syrup Company, Monticello, Ill.: Gentlemen—I heartily commend Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin as a most excellent preparation, especially for stomach troubles; it also acts as a stimulating tonic for the entire system.

Iso acts as a stimulating tonic for the entire system.

I have found it pleasant to take, as well as efficacious, and one of the few medicines which deserves hearty endorsement.

It is often a serious question to know just what medicine to take and which is reliable; but I am thoroughly satisfied after my experience with Syrup Pepsin that it is a most reliable medicine for the digestive organs. Yours most truly,
